The Titchmarsh Family

Origins of the name

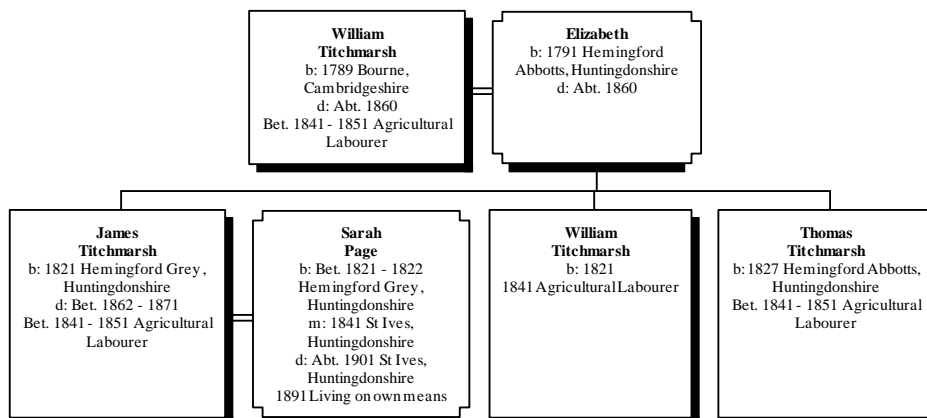

The Titchmarsh Family name originates in Northamptonshire, near Peterborough, and is a name applied to people who came from the Parish of Titchmarsh. Alan's ancestors came from Bourne in Cambridgeshire, in the 18th Century, and moved to Hemingford Grey in Huntingdonshire by the early 19th Century. They were Agricultural Labourers working on the land; a fitting start for the ancestors of Alan the Gardner.
